Of special note: A record was set was by Brad Pako currently from Dunedin. He learnt to chop as a boy over in Karamea and was in the New Zealand Under 21 team from when he was about 14. He recently won a world title event in Rotorua and will be one of the favorites at the South Island Championships in Reefton on Anzac weekend.

The block was a 350 mm hybrid poplar underhand cut in a time of 19.83 seconds.
